

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Realtors of South Dakota, together with their colleagues throughout the United States, are observing Realtor Week, May 20-26, in order to direct attention to the services and accomplishments of local real estate boards, state real estate associations, and the National Association of Real Estate Boards; and

WHEREAS, the work and purpose, as well as the achievements, of these organizations and of their individual Realtor members closely touch the personal and public lives of all our citizens; and

WHEREAS, the very nature of the Realtor profession reaches into all aspects of our American way of life, by the fostering of healthy communities, prosperous businesses, progressive industries; and

WHEREAS, these examples of the standard of living which our free enterprise system has given us are further being heightened by the practical proposals of Realtors in solving real estate problems arising from blight and slum conditions through the activities of their national Build America Better Program which gives expert advice to our communities on urban renewal; and

WHEREAS, the Realtor's knowledge, experience and appreciation of real estate transactions have helped to clear up problems that arise in the purchase of real property to the point that now home ownership is a reality for six out of 10 of our citizens and the improvement of this ratio is constantly holding the attention of the nation's Realtors;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 20 to 26, 1962 to be in South Dakota and urge our citizens to join with me in saluting the programs and services offered by the Realtors of this state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of South Dakota to be affixed this 15 day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.

Archie Gubbrud
